

ARC NI CONFERENCE 2025 SPONSORSHIP / EXHIBITOR INFORMATION PACK

ARC NI helps communities respect, listen to and include people with a learning disability, autism and other support needs and their families.

For 25 years ARC NI has facilitated Government, Academics, Regulators, Service Providers and people supported coming together. And when together, they identify the things that can be achieved to improve the lives of people with a learning disability, autism and other support needs.

People with a learning disability, autism and other support needs are Experts By Experience and everything we do, includes them. This includes our direct facilitation of advocacy groups called Telling It Like It Is (TILII) and through people living in the community.

WHAT YOU WILL BE SUPPORTING?

ARC NI is hosting a one-day conference in the Dunadry Hotel on 7th March 2025. The conference is called 'Time Travel Through The Crystal Labyrinth' and will celebrate the past and present achievements and consider the future needs of the learning disability community.

This event offers an opportunity to promote your brand, products or services to an audience of 150 conference delegates and our wider networks. These networks include 55 organisations across NI who employ over 10,000 staff and deliver social care services to over 8,000 people with a learning disability, autism and other support needs and their families.
